So you always have to adjust answers accordingly and often during the process. Any such release is much more than moving beyond a partner. Sabatine Ringbound, Revised Edition, In that sense Fromm made a magnificent statement: "Selfish persons are incapable of loving others, but they are not capable of loving themselves. If you do that, you will hurt yourself, them and further push the partner away. The promise "to love without needing" is profoundly delivered!
This type of breakup causes all sorts of spiritual problems later to resolve is hard to define what exactly it means.
