However, as Lombardi-Diop and Romeo have argued, migrants to Italy both from former Italian colonies and from other colonized territories are today articulating a shift in the conceptualization of race that challenges the very idea of Italianness Lombardi-Diop and Romeo 10introducing a new and postnational perception of Italian identity 9 storie mai raccontate (Italian Edition) is meant to be based not on legal status, in spite of the principle of ius sanguinis but rather on new ways of being Italian through participation in shared everyday experiences and cultural practices. Rather than tackling any interactions between the Church and its followers, Ammaniti chooses to situate his discussion of a miraculous event in a secular universe wholly deprived of faith, presenting its most dramatic ripple effects as effectively hidden from the world at large.
