Sighing with a complete lack of feeling, I opened the back door and went downstairs to put it directly into the bin. We spent the rest of the day walking around the shops, picking up books and looking at them, stopping for two cups of tea. What I was mainly doing, however, was sitting thrumming at my desk, leaping to In addition, his fellow teacher and author—William Jon Watkins, a sort of wizard in his own right—had just retired.
