When he came to a hall and "unlocked his word-hoard," he offered his hearers a variety of poems and legends from which they made their own selection. His strength as an etcher lay in his ability to design lively compositions and to execute the best of these in a relatively fluid manner of drawing. Howatson-Jones, Lioba, author. CloverbyMonsieurD.PeplerH. English translation : Ann E. He has at his command a fund of resource, not merely due to the religious spirit pervading his compositions, but to his care in selecting beautiful iridescent glass, shimmering, striated and rich in tone, all of which he knows how to arrange in concert with M.
