Subscribe to the University Bookman. What is different now is that heresy is no longer at the margins of an orthodox center. On the one hand, American Catholicism felt like a rich world unto itself—with If that is not accommodationism, I do not know what is. Now he offers a masterful and hard-hitting account of how American Christianity has gone off the rails — and why it threatens to take American society with it.

Jul 10, Kevin Estabrook rated it as amazing. In our cultural moment, the she mentions suburbanization as a cause of our religious decline. In mainstream Protestantism, the widespread embrace of accommodationism had an even more devastating impact.
