So Oscar set out, retracing his steps for an indeterminate number of blocks. After several blocks, Oscar turned left and walked four more blocks. He then took the bowl, placed it in the middle of his empty swimming pool, and dumped in a wheel barrel full of freshly steamed collard greens.

A compilation of short stories all about the same princess. At corners the shoes always turned in the right direction, and if Bobo forgot and blundered on the wrong way, the shoes swiftly began to pinch his toes. Get Off My Lawn!
