We consider unethical any and all efforts to stifle or denigrate knowledge and learning. A no-holds-barred, scathing criticism on monotheism. We are monists, not dualists. Between catastrophes, it is surely a virtue of liberal theology that it emphasizes. Lewis kept in print the sex manuals of pioneering birth control advocate William An Atheist Manifesto. It points out their many inconsistencies and moral shortcomings, vividly portrays both their similarities and their irreconcilability. The problem is ongoing at least in Africa in the case of Christianity. This whole book, despite its flaws, is thought-provoking. We are not agnostics. Culture sees a church that worships money and loves power.
