Whoever believes in him is not condemned. After God appeared to Jacob in a dream at Bethel, beginning in Genesis Jacob made a vow: If God would be with him, keep him safe, give him food and clothes to wear, and become his God, then of all that God gave him, Jacob would give back a tenth.

And let us work toward complete holiness because we fear God. Yet one day God pu

The article went on to describe these two girls that are at the same time one. Yet, I found myself deeply impressed by his wisdom, his kindness, and the way God views people and life.

There is no question that there is suffering in this life. Is Jesus the only way to heaven? The terrible curse demeans all the previous good in his life; it implies that his joy, his home, his peace, and the lives of his children had never meant a thing, just because now they are gone. If what I'm hearing is all about "me, myself and I," I can be fairly confident it's not the voice of God.
