Advanced Search. To raise such concerns is not to shelter beneath the phrase 'cultural relativism', retreat to the comfort of one's gin and tonic, and reactively defend any and all aspects of Australian Indigenous cultures from critique. Shareyourthoughtswithothercustomers. Overall, it leaves an impression of anger - at successive Federal and Territory governments; at the violence and neglect meted out by Aboriginal people to each other; at the response of the 'white justice' system; and at the white southern chardonnay sippers. University of South Australia. Showingofreviews.The consensus probably ends there though: both authors of the report have spoken out strongly against the intervention, and certainly their report made no recommendations for welfare quarantining or the suspension of the permit .
