Monday 15 April My favorite style of musical worship expression happens to be Black Gospel music. How can I get it? Solo, duet, trio, and quartet opportunities are covered by them, as well as volunteer choir members and guest artists. But only in that place of direct communication in idioms your congregation understands will its members feel completely natural speaking their musical language in praise Gods Singers worship to God. He gave us our sense of melody, harmony, and rhythm, and all the variations in Gods Singers that make music in all its forms a language which one way or another speaks lucidly to all cultures.

My point is: If you are responsible for leading the worship in your church, this book seeks to answer the questions above and many more, through significant biblical research and the crucible of hands-on application in thousands of settings, both contemporary and classic. Gods Singers 24 June
