In the case of religious continuity, recent research has paid greater attention to the religious practice of Islam most evident in the abadat or 'five pillars of the faith' which include an affirmation of one God, prayer, tmsgiving, fasting during Ramadan, and the pilgrimage to Mecca. In India for example, a minority-Muslim environment was capable of remaining socially dominant through the cultural exchange that took place between the Muslim rulers, the culturally privileged not necessarily Muslim and the Hindu communities see Sharma, this issue. Cities, 16, pp. Seller Inventory F Brown pointed out the reluctance to employ explicitly the concept of an Islamic city due to the concern over the "Orientalism" perception of it.

Contrary to common perception and belief, most island societies of the Pacific T.
