So, the people of India were much more advanced and their knowledge was unparalleled, thanks to the vedic Rishis and righteous kings. The Bhagwat Puranas and the Vishnu Puranas are the important. Do you know that most of the hymns spoke of. CommentarySayana14thcenturyed. The positive aspect of this concern with academic fetishes over all else is that Doniger does not, as Eknath Easwaran and other translators of and commentators upon Indian religious texts so often do, allow the superstitions and predispositions of modern Hinduism to determine the content or commentary. It is a collection of hymns in Vedic Sanskrit. LatestUpdates.None of these things are ever explained in the book, the author apparently just assuming that the reader already knows these references. I don't want to comment on any particular religion.
