Oct 27, Laura Greenwood rated it really liked it Shelves: 1-review-copyoctober And here we are. But then the book ended with a very intriguing twist and plot developments that almost makes it impossible not to pick up the next installment as a reflex.

Rebecca is probably my favorite character. I felt like fainting dramatically. The being truly persuading Lilith refers to her as Eve and he wishes to claim her, while we still have no idea what this being is or what its true intentions are, I have a feeling that the fight between Christian and the werewolf will be replayed with this creature. The amount of races and characters in the book sort of threw me a bit, as well as Georgie's profession, but I adjusted after a while and got into the swing of things. Also, Georgina likes books.
