Friend Reviews. We could say that Fanon yielded more theoretical returns than Guevara: He came to be seen, even after the gradual demise of Third Worldism and the failure of so many postcolonial states, one of the darlings, an honorary founding father of sorts, of the burgeoning field of postcolonial studies. The other Fanonian practice in Biko's philosophy that Gibson discusses in his chapter one is culture. NigelC.CancelForgotyourpassword? Furthermore, teachers and other role-players need to understand the paradigm that undergirds their system of education. Add a review and share your thoughts with other readers.
